

The Semiquaver / Sixteenth Note

How to write a Semiquaver
(a note that lasts for a quarter of a beat)

ViolinSchool
MusicLand

www.ViolinSchool.com

The semiquaver or sixteenth note is a filled-in oval with a stem and two tails. It lasts for a quarter of a crotchet beat. When it joins with its friends, their tails link together to make 2 beams.

Clap and say:

Activities

Semiquavers are fun to play! They are twice as fast as quavers.

Add some semiquavers on D and A, to finish the second bar of this tune!

Here is a rhyme about Gussie using semiquavers:

Copy it here!

